RULES FOR AUTOMOBILISTS.

President of Powerful "Chug Chug"
Organization Writes Ethics
 of Roadway.

Dave Hemen Morris, lawyer, horseman, autoist, and president of the aristocratic, autoistic and powerful Automobile Club of America—700 members
 —writing in Leslie's Weekly has formulated the following set of rules for the man in the auto, in which the negatives and positives are so delightfully and alternatively blended that they become at once a duty and a pleasure:

Don't disobey the rules of the road.

Remember to keep to the right and pass on the left.

Don't forget that pedestrians have the same rights as vehicles at street crossings.

Remember that vehicles do not have the right of way at street crossings.

Don't forget that your rate of speed should never exceed the legal rate—10 miles an hour in the greater city.

Remember, when local conditions require, to adopt even a lower rate of speed than the legal rate.

Don't get "rattled."

Remember that it is the "other fellow" who always loses his head in a crisis.

Don't insist upon your rights.

Remember that the "other fellow" may not know your rights, and an insistence on your part is bound to result in an accident.

Don't argue with trolley cars, express wagons, brewery trucks or other heavy bodies found in the public thoroughfare.

Remember that the drivers of these powerful vehicles generally operate on the theory that might is right.

Don't expect women and children to get out of your way.

Remember that women and children
 don't know how to avoid danger.

Don't run any unnecessary risks.

Remember that while the automobile is flexible, powerful and easily controlled, you may make a slip.

Don't drink.

Remember that nine-tenths of the accidents occur to automobiles driven by intoxicated chauffeurs.

Don't sneak away in case of an accident.

Remember that the true gentleman chauffeur, although he may not be responsible for the misfortune, stands his ground.

"Confusion" To-Night.

"Confusion" will be in order at the Opera House this evening by the Pick-erts Company. This performance will be the last of the company for this year, and there will probably be a good house.

Last night "Jesse James" was presented to a small audience, but the house nevertheless enjoyed the bill.
 Will Pickert owner of the company, in his comical acts excited roars of laughter.

...Wanted...
 1,000 Reporters!

The Daily News wants 1,000 reporters. No, this is not a joke. We really want them, and we won't be happy until we get them.

In other words, The Daily News wants every person, male and female, 18 years of age and over, in Daytona and its environs, to get on the staff of the paper. The Daily News wants every scrap of local news that is worth printing to appear in its columns. The best way to get it is to ask the people who know about the news to send it to the paper.

So if you know of anything that has happened, or is about to happen, tell the City Editor about it or write to him.

Let every man and woman, youth and maid in and around Daytona become a reporter The Daily News.
